Which Dorian?

A: Cleonides' Dorian. B: modern Dorian. Both start at 220 Hz, using 200-cent tones and 100-cent half-tones.

Degrees 2 and 6 differ. The shared name does not preserve the interval order.

B · Modern name

Dorian

T · S · T · T · T · S · T

Listen: A, then B

Eight ascending notes in A, a pause, then eight in B. Pure sine tones; this sound and the shared starting pitch are modern teaching choices. The modern label identifies an interval order, not a historical tuning. This is not a reconstruction of ancient performance.

Same starting pitch, 220 Hz. Differences are B minus A, in cents.

The named span

> τέταρτον … ἔστι δὲ ἀπὸ ὑπάτης μέσων ἐπὶ νήτην διεζευγμένων, ἐκαλεῖτο δὲ δώριον.
>
> The fourth … runs from hypatē mesōn to nētē diezeugmenōn; it was called Dorian.
> Cleonides, Harmonic Introduction 9; Jan 1895, pp. 197–198. Ellipses mark omissions.

The diatonic intervals

> … τέταρτον δὲ οὗ πρῶτον μὲν ἐπὶ τὸ βαρύ, τρίτον δὲ ἐπὶ τὸ ὀξύ …
>
> The fourth: the one whose [semitone is] first toward the low end and third toward the high end.
> Cleonides 9; Jan p. 198, lines 14–19. Square brackets supply words understood from the preceding clause.

Count the spaces between notes, starting at each end: Cleonides places these two small steps 1 from the low end and 3 from the high end. βαρύ is “low”; ὀξύ is “high”; ἡμιτόνιον is “half-tone”.

The preceding named spans are introduced in the enharmonic discussion. After listing the diatonic half-step positions, Cleonides explicitly carries the names across:

> ἔστι δὲ καὶ ταῦτα ἀπὸ τῶν αὐτῶν φθόγγων ἐπὶ τοὺς αὐτοὺς καθάπερ ἐπὶ τῆς ἁρμονίας καὶ τοῦ χρώματος καὶ ἐκαλεῖτο τοῖς αὐτοῖς ὀνόμασιν.
>
> These too run from the same notes to the same notes as in the enharmonic and chromatic, and were called by the same names.
> Jan p. 199, lines 1–3. New literal translation; “enharmonic” translates ἁρμονία in this passage.

Modern names: Steps to Music Theory, §11.1. Matching an interval order does not equate ancient performance, melodic practice, tuning or ethos with a modern mode.

SIL OPEN FONT LICENSE Version 1.1 - 26 February 2007

PREAMBLE
The goals of the Open Font License (OFL) are to stimulate worldwide development of collaborative font projects, to support the font creation efforts of academic and linguistic communities, and to provide a free and open framework in which fonts may be shared and improved in partnership with others.

The OFL allows the licensed fonts to be used, studied, modified and redistributed freely as long as they are not sold by themselves. The fonts, including any derivative works, can be bundled, embedded, redistributed and/or sold with any software provided that any reserved names are not used by derivative works. The fonts and derivatives, however, cannot be released under any other type of license. The requirement for fonts to remain under this license does not apply to any document created using the fonts or their derivatives.

DEFINITIONS

"Font Software" refers to the set of files released by the Copyright Holder(s) under this license and clearly marked as such. This may include source files, build scripts and documentation.

"Reserved Font Name" refers to any names specified as such after the copyright statement(s).

"Original Version" refers to the collection of Font Software components as distributed by the Copyright Holder(s).

"Modified Version" refers to any derivative made by adding to, deleting, or substituting -- in part or in whole -- any of the components of the Original Version, by changing formats or by porting the Font Software to a new environment.

"Author" refers to any designer, engineer, programmer, technical writer or other person who contributed to the Font Software.

PERMISSION & CONDITIONS

Permission is hereby granted, free of charge, to any person obtaining a copy of the Font Software, to use, study, copy, merge, embed, modify, redistribute, and sell modified and unmodified copies of the Font Software, subject to the following conditions:

1) Neither the Font Software nor any of its individual components, in Original or Modified Versions, may be sold by itself.

2) Original or Modified Versions of the Font Software may be bundled, redistributed and/or sold with any software, provided that each copy contains the above copyright notice and this license. These can be included either as stand-alone text files, human-readable headers or in the appropriate machine-readable metadata fields within text or binary files as long as those fields can be easily viewed by the user.

3) No Modified Version of the Font Software may use the Reserved Font Name(s) unless explicit written permission is granted by the corresponding Copyright Holder. This restriction only applies to the primary font name as presented to the users.

4) The name(s) of the Copyright Holder(s) or the Author(s) of the Font Software shall not be used to promote, endorse or advertise any Modified Version, except to acknowledge the contribution(s) of the Copyright Holder(s) and the Author(s) or with their explicit written permission.

5) The Font Software, modified or unmodified, in part or in whole, must be distributed entirely under this license, and must not be distributed under any other license. The requirement for fonts to remain under this license does not apply to any document created using the Font Software.

TERMINATION
This license becomes null and void if any of the above conditions are not met.

DISCLAIMER
